Party at Hernandez Home Given Future Teachers of America

On the beautiful lawn of the Pierre Hernandez home just o South College road, the Pierre Hernandez chapter of the Future Teachers of America of the Lafayet high school were given a party yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hernandez and their son, Sebastian welcomed the members as they came up the circular flower-bordered driveway. They were taken on a tour of the garden, with their host identifying plants for them, while he told interesting stories about them. Some of his guests were former students of his science classes at the high school.

In an impressive ceremony conducted by the officers, the following new members were taken into the club: The Misses Eleanor Dumesnil, Jenelle Daniel, Anna DeRousse, and Shirley Hervey.

Chicken salad sandwiches, frosted punch and cakes were served the guests by their hosts.

Because of his long and outstanding record of service at the Lafayette high school, Mr. Hrnandez's name was chosen for the local chapter. Dr. Grace Agate is the sponsor.

Present were Edwina Cotton, president, Jane Brown, vice-president, Shirley Breaux, secretary, Poland Morvant, treasurer, Gus Weill, historian and Marie Daigle, librarian.

Others present were Mary Elizabeth Wallace, Winnis Trahan, Dorothy Thibodeaux, Ralph Guidroz, and the new members. Special guests of the club were Mrs. H. A. Hervey, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chaplin, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Agate.

Hernandez to Play In Virginia Concert

Sabastian Hernandaz, son of Pierre Hernandez, of Lafayette, is one of 15 in Louisiana who will play in a concert at the Southwestern Music Educators' conference in Richmond, Va. He will play the cello. George Barth from SLI will direct the concert.

Barth Leads Orchestra At Richmond Meet

George Barth, professor of music at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, stepped into the spotlight Friday to conduct the All-Conference High school orchestra at the 12th biennial meeting of the Southern Music Educators' conference in Richmond, Va.

More than 2000 music enthusiasts ranging from school musicians to elderly educators converged on Richmond for the conference with 11 Southern states participating in the program.

Lafayette High school was represented by Celloist Sebastian Hernandez a student of John Gilfry.

Many phases of music education were discussed at various panel workshops held simultaneously with the musical presentations. The discussions emphasized school music.

Hernandez Plays In Richmond Concert

Sebastian Hernandez, outstanding member of the freshman class, returned over the week-end from Richmond, Virginia, where he played the cello in the All-Conference High School Orchestra performance directed by Mr. George Barth of S. L. I.

The concert was held during the 12th biennial meeting of the Southern Music Educators' Conference.

Sebastian traveled on the "Southerner" from New Orleans to Washington, D.C. where he remained for several days visiting relatives and taking in D.C.

Congratulations to a fine musician!
